

I do not want people calling my house asking if I want to buy things or to donate to something or ask my opinion on something! If I want to buy something, I'll buy it without being prodded on the phone. If I want to donate to a certain charity, I'll donate on my own. If I want to share my opinion about something, I'll call the manager of the store or the network or the radio station or whatever it is I need to complain or rejoice about. In short, I DON'T WANT SOLICITORS CALLING MY HOUSE OR MY CELL PHONE. Thank you for letting me express my opinion.
